23rd June 2023

Dear parents/carers and families,

In school this week, competition has been the buzz word! We have had a wonderful sports day – I can't really believe it is that time of the year if I am honest! All of the children have worked so hard and put so much effort into their races this year. It has been lovely to see them progress in their skill and technique across all events over the past year, and this is testament to not only their efforts but the efforts of Mr Eva and the class teachers. A big well done to all involved – the children have done us all proud!

It is important to remember that with sporting events, although competition and winning is important, it really isn't the most important aspect. Taking part and developing the behaviours and understanding of sportsmanship is equally as important. This week we have been lucky enough to be working with worldwide game developers "Fishbladder" on testing a game called "Planet Possible" using the iPads, that encourages physical activity for children who may not favour the traditional sporting activities. It has been an activity we have done this week in competition with three other TPAT schools – all of which are much, much bigger than us! Although I suspect due to our size, we will might not win, we will have made a significant contribution to changing the face of technology and how it is used in schools and with children. This is incredibly exciting and I am very proud of everyone for having a go and being a central part of this. We are all members of a community – local and worldwide and contributing to this puts us in that worldwide community. How exciting!

Now looking at matters closer to our local community, I really need to ask families to be considerate with parking at pick up and drop off times. The community around us are also a part of our identity and of what we do. They volunteer help and support in all things and as we are all part of the local community together, we need to support and be kind to everyone as best we can. We understand dropping off and collecting children is busy and challenging in cars. However, a little care and consideration in parking would help everyone go about their business positively. We really thank you for your support in this matter.

Finally, please do keep checking dates and events in the newsletter, Facebook and in emails. Seesaw is a great way to contact staff if you are not sure about events.

With warmest wishes

Mrs Ellie Watkins
